California Patients and Practitioners. The Consumer Communications Bureau with the California Department of Insurance is available to assist customers with claims they feel have been wrongfully denied or rejected. Consumers may call or write the Bureau to have claims reviewed. Callers outside California and those in California (area codes 213 or 310) may contact the Consumer Communications Bureau at 213-897-8921. The number for the rest of California is 1-800-927-HELP. The mailing address is: Consumer Communications Bureau, California Department of Insurance, 300 S. Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90013. The Department's Internet website (www.insurance.ca.gov) has complaint forms and instructions online.

Before you file a complaint with the California Department of Insurance, you should first contact the insurance company in an effort to resolve the issue(s). If you do not receive a satisfactory response, then complete the department's Request for Assistance form. Occasionally, the issue may be of such a nature that attempting to contact the insurance company first may not be appropriate. In these situations, it would be appropriate to contact the Department first.

California Practitioners: To enter the dispute resolution process, please call 888-632-3862 or write to P.O. Box 14020, Lexington, KY 40512.
